

Supporting Course Data template for a Proposed New Course in the College of Arts and Sciences

Instructions: Please complete the information below regarding the new course you are proposing and save it. You will be prompted to attach this file to the “Supporting Course Data” form in BearQuest when you are submitting your new course request.

Course Prefix and Number: (This information should match what appears in BearQuest. If it does not, BearQuest information will be used.)

Name of Course: (This information should match what appears in BearQuest. If it does not, BearQuest information will be used.)

Course goals and/or objectives: (List what the student should learn and/or be able to do by the end of the semester)

Course requirements: (e.g. attendance, participation, papers, oral presentations, examinations, etc.)

Grading system/Scale: (Indicate both the letter grade and corresponding number values. Note: Grading options for undergraduate and graduate credit may differ.)

Sequence of course topics/calendar of Assignments:

Textbooks: (Required texts and any readings that are optional or suggested. Please give a citation for each text and reading that includes at least title, author and year and follows whatever format or style manual is appropriate for the discipline.)

Library Resources: (List any specific resources, e.g. journal subscriptions, database subscriptions, etc. that the library would need to acquire to support this course.)